Numb. 9315.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday October 27, to Tuesday October 30, 1753.

Naples, October 2.

THE Queen, who continues to advance happily in her Pregnancy, is adviſed to confine herſelf to her Apartments, till after her Lying-in. The King has appointed Don Francis de Sarno to be Profeſſor of Phyſick in our Univerſity, in the Room of the late Dr. Joachim Porta. On the 27th paſt Sentence was paſſed on fifteen Criminals, who have been for ſome Time confined in the different Priſons of this City, three of whom were condemned to be hanged, and the other twelve to work in the King's Gallies, as Slaves, during Life.

Venice, Oct. 9. The Senate has appointed M. Francois Grimani to be Commander in Chief of the Republick's Troops in Dalmatia. The late Treaty between the Court of Vienna and the Duke of Modena, gives great Satisfaction to the Subjects of this Republick, who ſeem fully convinced of its being calculated entirely for the Preſervation of the Peace and Tranquility of Italy.

Rome, Oct. 10. The 4th of this Month, being St. Francis's Day, whoſe Name the Emperor bears, Cardinal Alexander Albani, Miniſter from their Imperial Majeſties, received the Compliments of the Members of the Sacred College, and of the principal Nobility, upon that Occaſion, moſt of whom he afterwards entertained at Dinner in an elegant Manner. The Promotion of Cardinals, that has been ſo long expected, is again deferred till Chriſtmas.

Turin, Oct. 12. Her Royal Highneſs the Dutcheſs of Savoy is quite recovered from her Lying-in. Count Monaſterole, his Sardinian Majeſty's Ambaſſador at the Court of Naples, will ſoon return home, but it is not yet declared who is to ſucceed him.

Vienna, Oct. 13. Her Imperial Majeſty has given the Regiment of Cuiraſſiers, commanded by the late Prince Lobkowitz, to the Hereditary Prince of Modena; and the Chief Command of the Troops in Hungary is conferred on Prince Wenceſlas de Lichtenſtein. The Sieur Ricci's Project for eſtabliſhing a Manufacture of Thread and Cotton, having been examined by the Council of Commerce, and approved, Leave is given for his carrying the ſame into Execution. Count Seilern, Miniſter from Bohemia to the General Diet of the Empire, ſet out from hence a few Days ago for Ratisbon; and 'tis ſaid, that Prince Eſterhaſi, heretofore their Imperial Majeſties Ambaſſador Extraordinary to the King of the Two Sicilies, will ſet out ſhortly, with the ſame Character, to the Court of Lisbon, in order to execute a Commiſſion of great Importance. Count Przichowsky, Coadjutor to the Archbiſhop of Prague, who arrived here laſt Week from Bohemia, is nominated to the Biſhoprick of Koniggratz, in the Room of the late Count Wratiſlaw. The Silver Mine lately diſcovered in the Mountain called Anna-Berg, in Stiria, is work'd with ſuch Succeſs, that we hope ſoon to reap very conſiderable Advantages from it.

Aix in Provence, Oct. 14. On the 2d Inſtant the Parliament of this City iſſued an Arret, renewing and confirming thoſe of the 21ſt of May, and 7th and 27th of June laſt; which Arrets expreſly forbid the Clergy from doing any Act or Thing that may tend to Schiſm, or to the introducing of arbitrary Profeſſions of Faith; and enjoining them ſtrictly to conform to the received Laws and Conſtitution of the Church, in adminiſtring the Sacrament to ſick Perſons.

Ratisbon, Oct. 15. Count Aubeterre, Envoy Extraordinary and Miniſter Plenipotentiary from the Court of France to that of Vienna, arrived here the 13th in the Evening, and continued his Journey Yeſterday to Vienna. Baron de Haren, late Miniſter from the Court of Sweden to the Diet for the Suffrages of the Dutchy of Pomerania, died here laſt Wedneſday in the 60th Year of his Age.

Copenhagen, Oct. 16. A Reſolution has been taken to erect an Equeſtrian Statue of the King in the Middle of the Square of Amelienbourg, and accordingly M. Sailly, an eminent Sculptor, is is come hither from Paris to execute the ſame. An Ordonnance was publiſhed ſome Days paſt, forbidding abſolutely the Games at Cards and Dice, and in general all that are called Games of Chance; and they will not be permitted at Court but on Drawing-Room-Days. This Ordonnance not only threatens with ſevere Penalties all who play at theſe Games, or who ſuffer them to be played in their Houſes; but promiſes alſo to the Informers, even though they ſhould have been of the Party at Play, half the Money which ſhall be ſeized on the Tables, and a fourth Part of the Fine which the Offenders are to pay.

Berlin, Oct. 16. His Majeſty has declared his Reſolution of making another Tour into Sileſia, and has fixed the 20th of this Month for his Departure. The Bailly de Froulay, Ambaſſador from Malta, had on Wedneſday laſt his Audience of Leave of the two Queens, as well as of the Princes and Princeſſes of the Royal Family; and the Day following ſet out on his Return to Paris, there to reſume the Functions of his Embaſſy to the Court of France.

Dort, Oct. 17. Upon the Nomination that has been preſented to the Princeſs Governante, her Royal Highneſs has made Choice of the following Perſons to be Aldermen of this Town. Meſſ. Peter Ouderwater, John de Bech, Peter Mathew Beelaarts, Count Einminkhoven, of Granſwyh and of Waarthugſen, and M. John Dierhens.

Paris, Oct. 19. We have received Advice, that M. de Franqueville, Counſellor of the Parliament of Normandy, and one of thoſe who formed the greateſt Oppoſition to the regiſtring the King's Letters Patents, died on the 9th Inſtant at Rouen, having, on his Death-Bed, retracted all that he had ſaid or wrote, during his whole Life, in Favour of the Janſeniſts.

Louvain, Oct. 18. The Deputies of the Town of Namur, who came here from Bruſſels, ſet out on Friday laſt with Baron d'Eynatten, our firſt Burgomaſter, in order to go and examine the marking out of the new Road, which is to be made from hence to Namur. We hear that Baron Cronburg, one of the Deputies of the States of the Province of Flanders, will be nominated by her Imperial Majeſty to the Biſhoprick of Bruges, which has been vacant for ſome Time. The Preparations that were making, by Order of our Magiſtrates, for the Reception of Prince Charles of Lorrain, are ordered to be ſuſpended for the preſent, his Serene Highneſs having put off his coming hither to view our new Canal to the End of next Month.

Admiralty-Office, October 30, 1753.

PUrſuant to an Act paſſed the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, This is to give Notice, that on the 26th Inſtant, the Ship Duke of Cumberland, belonging to Scarborough, of about 560 Tuns Burthen, John Robinſon, Maſter, laden with Deals from Chriſtiana in Norway, conſigned to Mr. John Higg, Merchant in London, ſtruck on Hippisburgh Sand, as the ſaid Ship was making for Cromer; and that the Water gaining faſt in the Hold, the Maſter and Ship's Company left her: Soon after which ſhe drove upon the Main Beach within the Liberties of the Borough of Yarmouth, where ſhe now lies.

General Poſt-Office,
October 18, 1753.

Whereas an Anonymous Letter has been ſent to the Right Hon. Thomas Earl of Leiceſter, his Majeſty's Poſt-Maſter General, in the following Terms:

" My Lord, 1753.

" I find that it was by your Orders that Mr. Stock-
" dale was hung in Chains; Now if you dont order
" him to be taken down, I will ſet Fire to your Houſe,
" and blow your Brains out the firſt Opportunity.

" Thurſday October 11*th.*

To the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Leiceſter at Holkham, Norfolk.

This is to offer a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any who ſhall or may make Diſcovery of the Party or Parties concerned in Writing or Sending the above-ſaid Letter, ſo that he, ſhe or they, be convicted thereof, together with his Majeſty's moſt Gracious Pardon for any Accomplice, who ſhall make Diſcovery of the ſame.

By Command of the Poſt-Maſter General,
Geo. Shelvocke, Secretary.

THAT ſeveral Noblemen and Gentlemen of the County of Mid-Lothian in Scotland, and others, Proprietors of entailed Eſtates, having taken under Conſideration, the many Hardſhips and Inconveniencies with which their Properties and Families are affected by the preſent Situation of ſuch Tenures limited on Perpetuity; Hardſhips and Inconveniencies, which not only affect them ſingly, in their private Capacity, but, which affect the Police and Improvement of the whole Country in general; and of which, the bad Conſequences have been long felt, and long complained of; They have, therefore reſolved, to apply, by Petition, to the next Seſſion of Parliament, to have theſe Hardſhips and Inconveniencies removed, by the Interpoſition of the Legiſlature, in the Way which ſhall ſeem moſt proper and expedient.—And, as theſe Hardſhips and Inconveniencies are as various, as are the Entails themſelves, and are beſt known to the Perſons who labour under them; and, as this intended Application to Parliament is projected, not with a View to the Advantage of the few, but of the many; therefore, the ſaid Noblemen and Gentlemen have reſolved to meet in John's Coffee Houſe at Edinburgh, on Tueſday the 20th Day of November next, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon; at which Meeting, all who deſign to join in the ſaid Petition to Parliament, are deſired to be preſent, by themſelves, or their Agents, in order that the ſame may be drawn in the beſt and moſt comprehenſive Way poſſible, ſo as to anſwer moſt effectually the good Ends and Purpoſes thereby propoſed; and that it may be preſented to Parliament,

Parliament, with all that Strength and Unanimity which the Importance of the Caſe calls for and demands.

N. B. It is expected that thoſe who intend to concur in this Application, will be punctual in their Attendance on the ſaid Meeting of the 20th of November next.

Advertiſements.
